1. Claims 4 through 8, 10 and 11 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from another multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 4 through 8, 10 and 11 have not been further treated on the merits.

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1 through 3 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, it is not understood whether the "opening" recited in line 1 is the same element as the "opening portion" recited in line 3. Further, it is not clearly understood how the "extendable strap and track mechanism" holds the rolls in place since the structural relationship and structure of such mechanism has not been sufficiently defined in the claim. Also, it is unclear how the roll is released as no structure has been clearly defined to release or separate a roll.

In claim 2, the structural relationship of the various recited elements to result in the toilet paper dispensing container has not been clearly established.

Claim 9 is indefinite because it depends from itself, therefore; it is not clearly understood what elements are included in the claim.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3653

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1 and 3/1 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cravatt.

Cravatt teaches toilet paper dispensing container having an opening which allows the release of a toilet roll, the container accommodating a plurality of rolls accessible one at a time via an opening portion (at 28). The container includes an extendable strap and track mechanism (comprising elements 34, 36 and 38) which holds all of the rolls in place above the roll that is to be released (and above the opening which allows the release of a roll). Cravatt also provides a pivoted lid 32 at the upper end of the container to allow filling the container.

6. The failure by the examiner to apply prior art to claims 2, 3/2 and 9 should not be construed as an indication of allowable subject matter in view of the above rejection under 35 USC 112 second paragraph.

7. The Information Disclosure Statement filed 12 November 2003 has been partially considered. Examiner has considered the United States patent documents cited in the Information Disclosure Statement. The foreign patent documents cited have not been considered because copies of the cited documents have not been provided.

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to David H. Bollinger whose telephone number is 571-272-6935. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.
